

Meet Tony Viviano!

Tony Viviano and his band, "The Musical Expression," have been thrilling audiences from St. Louis to Las Vegas, Chicago to Miami, Kansas City to Ft. Lauderdale, and at numerous Italian Festivals all over the USA. Whether it's a concert, at a dinner club, a wedding party, a black tie affair, or merely a gathering of friends, Tony's musical stylings and his incomparable personality captivate audiences like no other performer can.

"Defined ... by the artistry of Sinatra, Bennett, and Tormé, lounge singers of the old school are getting harder to find. Tony Viviano ... knows how to interpret the classics, how to work a room and how to hire good musicians ... [and] proves that the classic mix of style and sentimentality ... is far from extinct." - St. Louis Riverfront Times

When the inimitable Carol Channing needed an opening act for her appearance at WestPort Playhouse in St. Louis, she tapped Tony Viviano. His "best-of," pop repertoire proved to be the perfect set-up for Carol's appearance. And, how did Carol select Tony? She based her choice on her husband's recommendation after he saw Tony perform at a local bistro.

Tony has also opened for such diverse talents as Frankie Avalon, Red Buttons, Stan Musial, Henny Youngman, and many more.

Tony and his band have amassed a legion of followers over the years and gained accolades from every side. Advertising a Bobby Darin Tribute Concert for the "Twilight Tuesdays" series, the Missouri History Museum called Tony a "St. Louis legend!" - a fitting tribute to the man voted "Best Lounge Act of 2003" by The St. Louis Riverfront Times.
